WHAT IS LIVING IN 2 WORLDS?

The Living in 2 Worlds Summer Day Camp is open to middle school-aged students who will be entering the 6th grade up to entering the 9th grade. The L2W Summer Day Camp will begin Monday, June 3rd and end Thursday, June 27th. It will take place four days per week (Monday through Thursday) from 8:30 am to 4:00 pm. Students can arrive as early as 7:30 and picked up no later than 5:30 pm. Breakfast will be offered from 7:30 to 8:30 am. Participating youth will be fed through the Phoenix Indian Center, or they can provide their own lunch.

The Living in 2 Worlds curriculum was developed by the Phoenix Indian Center in partnership with ASU's Southwest Interdisciplinary Research Center using the Keepin' it REAL drug resistance strategies project as a program for our American Indian youth. Living in 2 Worlds draws on American Indian culture and values as effective drug resistance strategies. We provide youth with different ways to say no to negative choices that confront youth every day, and at the same time, we give youth ample opportunity to express their pride in their American Indian culture(s) and teach them the positive value in the nurturing of that pride.
